Sawa enters American Academy because she admires their uniforms, but since it was originally an all boys school, it's a little hard to find. There are two girls in the class. After having study for this with the previous boys who gather around Sawa. Sawa now comes to be getting along with them.

Sawa is injured when other classes were making fun of the 4-group during the opening of the class members, but because Sawa protects her a special feeling is born.

That's when the boys everyone wants for a study partner at Sawa's house, but for some reason Sawa looks depressed. During Sawa's work, Sawa goes blowup up and tells her to love it more about. As the distance between the two boys, Sawa starts working Sawa because he knows this like her.

Meanwhile Sawa visits Sawa, who is lower side, and the two spend some time alone together. When this suddenly comes over Sawa he and says that Sawa already goes home, the next day. This source of this and says some word thing to Sawa without thinking Sawa, after hearing from the head and the others about what happened to Sawa in the past, starts working to get the boys to tell her their true feelings. She realizes that she, too, wants to see Sawa really.

One day Sawa is gifted, Yui, appears! Sawa realizes that Yui still loves Sawa. In the midst of all this anxiety she witnesses Sawa and Yui embracing each other.

Meetings & About the Chapter 9 Cover Picture

Has the number of new readers decreased after all this time? Or not? At any rate, here's volume 9! It seems kind of out-of-the-moment? Hard Ah, I forget to say that it's May's party... (laugh) But's about from New Year's!

Now then, for the chapter 9 cover picture, my personal point 10 was the profile.

The book was one shade of green, but I really like this color called 6-14 Copic (colored-pencil numbered as I wanted to try coloring with that. Apple-green Copic are vivid at first glance, but they're not necessary for coloring. It's restricted by the brightness of the colors.) but among them, there are colors that oppose coloring, and I think 6-14 is one of those colors.

Popularity
Poll

2

In the issue Chapter 8 appeared in, there was a popularity poll for the characters of RanMao. This sort of poll is a first so I organized and produced the results.

By the way, these (below down-wards) are my predictions.

1st place	Tama
2nd place	Ken
3rd place	Kido
4th place	Maia
5th place	Tsunobu
6th place	Isamu (little sister)
7th place	Agnes
8th place	Mama
9th place	Yori
10th place	Fayouko
11th place	Papa

Answer: 1

The results are in the next column.

At my table, I was surprised Ogino was in third place. Was it because he did something in the issue the poll was on? "Yeah?"

And Hida: "Laugh" do your best! "Laugh"

Right now, in real time, I'm talking about Kido in the magazine (the March issue of 2007). I'll do my best so that he'll have a bit of a higher rank if we do the popularity poll again. "Yeah?"

Hida? What about Tuguchi?

You know, after those results came out, I noticed something after my assistant pointed it out: the order the main characters went seemed amazingly well with the order of my personal favorites. "Yeah?"

Did I really show it enthusiastically in my drawings? Haha. "Yeah?"

It's not every day that's popular, so I want to try drawing an extra short chapter on Tuguchi.

Clothes

The clothes I bought recently wouldn't fit into my closet no matter how I tried, so I had to dispose of the clothes I had worn as a long time.

So, after I tried to hang the old and newly bought clothes together... Well... it was amazingly hard.

Sometimes people who wear colorful clothes are amazing, aren't they?

However, this water floats in leggings coming into fashion. I'm a little less opposed to skirts. It's like looking for a particular computer virus. I'm short enough so it doesn't really suit me "used"

I didn't used to like skirts in my high school (even without uniforms). I only wore skirts three times in the whole three years.

I knew it was an anime movie based on Matsushige Tazuma's work without being told. Those Japanese do tell the art was really amazing! Just how many months did they spend drawing that? Also, the case of those people against your actors doing such voices as anime movies but I was really happy! For You-don did really well and I fell for her! I can't wait to get all the dubbing and art by watching it just once. I have to concentrate more!

About the Cover Prowling on Chapter II • α

It's a drawing I made using mostly red color! I drew it without much definition but it was wildly Black. What could it be...? That's enough power! (LOL)

This time I will, I kinda don't like to say such and such!

But I'll say such-and-such in this Chapter (It's a guess. (Go. Really I will!))

It's hard to draw plain hair when Akira and Tsukasa are in the same scene! Just between us, later there will be a chapter full of plain hairs, so I will practice my plain hair so that I can speed up and schedule my work with careful planning! Long hair is OK, but when it comes to ponytails or other styles, the drawing gets so... Oh, go! (LOL)

Q: 'Sensei, do you also feel embarrassed when you see your drawings from 5 years before?

A: OF COURSE! But, basically, all embarrassing pictures have been disposed of, so there is no problem. Those that are made to be my "products" are only done. And, also, those that I don't feel embarrassed of I sometimes use my 10th grade drawings. But, those that I made as professional - I can't do anything about them myself - even if I feel embarrassed by them.

Q How far is Tsuki's house from Tendo Institute?

A Oh interesting question. Tsuki's house is about five stations by train and eight minutes walking at least on an average. By the way, Fumi, Ogura and Tsubaki are all in a distance that allows them to go to the institute walking. Toga-cho goes to the institute by train, Fide by bus. The bus stops aren't that far from the institute. And Anna is the furthest of them all. Besides, arriving by train means changing stations.

About the opening drawing of Chapter 12 + α

It's the first chapter that I did consecutively in two books.

This picture drawing process was transmitted by my blog (GEL) above on the last page of the booklet... But I can say this because I finished GEL, that I got tired of transcribing the process to the point where I started to draw in Miyagi's hair color filling. So, the last part was like "whatever."

I think this kind of attraction very happens at that time and that's it.

If anybody's interested, please, visit: It's a blog made around 2004, an entry from September 10th to October 1st.

I was filling in the colors of all the balloons in this chapter's cultural festival and I got scolded by my assistant who said, "Stop filling those things and keep drawing!" Rightly said! (For the 1st time!)

Just good to know.

Just

good

Q: What is the meaning of Kaitani's Maou?

From Kite-chan of Kaitani's and a lot of other people

A: This is easy to answer, and, I could answer it in 10 seconds, but I want everyone to wait for the last chapter (J.O.K.) I mean, there is no deep meaning into this and someone with a sharp mind (or Kaitani) could know the meaning already. But I prefer not to say anything from my own mouth. I feel like, if I explain it, the last comment I plan to use for the last chapter will lose half of its charm. So, more or less, that's how it is.

Q&A is still open! I want to repeat the notice so, if you have any questions, send it without mercy! La la la la!

I was the only girl in class, right?

For the first time, I defeated my teacher.

But I do any thing without knowing for her to say anything like that

Why did she say anything like that?

Maybe I just told a lie...

Does my fringe...

and there's a lot that I don't know

I don't do anything thoughtful,
anything...

about other people, but never about myself.

"RIGHT?"

"HAS SHE

"HABASHIWA

Wonderare Smooth Moves was #?

It's a game that you dance while standing up and move your hips but I felt lazy and I only moved the Remote Control and I got a stream of thurs from the gallery (LOL)

That's why I told her that (I'll just watch (LOL) And, I thought Zelda was a Fishing game (By the way
I thought Animal Crossing was also a fishing game)

In spring of 2001, Feels straight will come out I can't wait! Dragon Warrior (I will also come out in 2002?) I was quite shocked that the battle will change into action

It's hard for me, a person who couldn't even handle the FF's battle

Starting from the opportunity to buy ZEPHY's best CD, I left again for 9th grade. Man, that I liked from primary school 5th grade to secondary school second grade. I really, really liked ZEPHY and ZEPHY, but I think by Record Company's Policy, there was almost no media exposure of these two groups. It applies to ZEPHY.

even now. There weren't as many music related programs. So, I used to record the channel that played the promotional video like crazy. Ah-h-h-h.

And about ZEPHY, I liked the guitarist, Shikashi-san. So, I checked up on what he has been doing, and I realized he formed a band with relatives and is even writing a blog. In the old days, it was so difficult to get information, and now, he's even part of a TV show!

It became a good time, those times. And, he looks good even now.

And, what I was trying to say is that I concern to my father's "Was Chorus is a famous song" feeling. Songs from the teenage years are special.
